Parent group discussion questions

Use these questions with the 'Tackling big questions: Talking Faith with Amy Orr-Ewing' video available on the Kitchen Table Project YouTube channel:
www.youtube.com/KitchenTableProject

1. Have you encountered difficult questions from your children yet? Have you felt prepared to answer or taken off guard?
2. 1 Peter 3:15 says:

"But in your hearts revere Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect."

It can be difficult when our children challenge our faith or have complex questions. How does this verse help you to think about how to respond?
3. How can you help your children develop a habit of turning to God in difficult situations or with hard questions?
4. What difficult questions have you had to wrestle with yourself, and how would you talk to your children about those topics?
5. How can you support each other to be prepared for the difficult questions? Share good resources, ideas and videos that could be helpful!
